FREE EVENT. BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL

Finding sense in the modern world is becoming increasingly difficult. Everywhere we look things seem to be getting stranger and the impact on global financial markets and economic stability is becoming more pronounced.

Over the past 12 months we have seen a multitude of events rise to illustrate just how mad the world can be, including the US political situation, trade wars, escalated tensions between US and Iran, Brexit, Hong Kong demonstrations and devastating fires in the Amazon. All of this at a time when financial markets are increasingly volatile and offering unusual valuations and directions!

With the world’s population now exceeding 7.5 billion the impact of these issues is intensifying, so it’s essential we understand the factors affecting us and how they impact our decision making. Being able to find clarity in the madness is the key to protecting your position and building a positive future.

Join this free seminar as we discuss:

- ◆ Global issues impacting financial markets and its influence on our daily lives;
- ◆ How to change our thinking to maintain sanity in the madness and even benefit;
- ◆ A forecast of international markets in the coming year;
- ◆ The state of the Australian Dollar - has it bottomed out?;
- ◆ Australian property market prospects for 2019/2020.
